BFO Office Renovations

Dear Members, the generous donations from the Durham Region Association of Realtors and the Durham Community Fund, have given us the funds to renovate the lower level of the BFO Durham office.

We now have a large meeting area with beautiful vinyl plank flooring, separate Women’s and Men’s washrooms, porcelain tiled stairs and floors, storage cupboards and new paint on the walls.

There is an area at the back of the lower level that is available to be used as a kitchen.

For a donation of $500 towards the cost of this kitchen installation there will be a commemorative plaque placed on the wall bearing your child’s name. This plaque will show how a donation made in their loving memory helped to fund the kitchen.

Please contact Jane at the office if you wish your child’s name to be on this plaque.

A huge thank you from BFO Durham to those who make this donation and to all Members for all your generous donations throughout the year allowing BFO-D to continue to support bereaved parents and children.

BFO Durham board of Directors wishes to announce the retirement of Marian Rehr as treasurer and board member.

Marian will be very much missed, a voice of calm and wisdom for the board ever since it was formed. The countless hours Marian gave to BFO as co-founder, facilitator, treasurer and bookkeeper were a tremendous support to BFO Durham and all its members for almost 30yrs

On behalf of the board, I want to wish Marian all the best and we hope to still see her at our events

The following article is a lovely tribute to Marian written by Susan Hendricks

MARIAN REHR

Because she is so self-effacing and humbly driven, it is very difficult to describe Marian Rehr and all that she has done for BFO – Durham. She truly understands that service is not about making herself important but about supporting and helping the other in spite of her own needs or wants – otherwise she would not have been able to support BFO as Co-Founder and Treasurer for the past thirty years! Marian's level of commitment demonstrates her continuing love for her son, Martin, who died at Easter in 1990.

Marian and I met with two other bereaved mothers who lived in Durham but were part of the Metro Toronto BFO organization – Priscilla Butler and Emily Parker – and together we co-founded the Durham Chapter in late 1993. The others would leave fairly soon, first Priscilla who moved away and a year or so later, Emily. Marian and I remained as the bones of the organization, holding it up and watching it become a living entity with flesh of its own, joined later by a Board of Directors. Trained by Toronto as facilitators, she and I led the first groups, usually held in church meeting rooms whose space was donated to the fledgling BFO. Many in those first groups have remained friends and gone on to serve the organization as volunteers, facilitators, Board members and even Executive Directors

Marian's calming presence and sense of wellbeing, whether or not she was having a good or bad day, reassured these bereaved parents that there can be a life following the death of a child, particularly if it is lived within the continuing spiritual presence of our dear ones. Quite apart from her quiet presence, we cannot forget her lovely giggle, which has not been lost to grief and sorrow.

As a co-facilitator with Marian, I was blessed by her support but also by her wonderful memory and skills of observation. In those days we followed the Toronto format, noting where everyone sat, grief issues that were observed. I would note down the seating arrangement on my coffee cup: Marian didn't need to. She had almost a photographic and auditory memory and was able to recall most details of the meeting without any reminders. Rosemary Tremblay Davis, a member of that first group has said, "When I think of Marian, I think of her quiet presence always there but in the background, gently offering her wisdom and support to all of us. Maybe like the wind beneath our wings." And Janice Ainsley, again of that first group experience, "I remember Marian as a kind and gentle soul dealing with loss as we all were. Both you and Marian were there to help us cope during our difficult times and we rejoiced in each other's good times welcoming new family members."

Marian has been that for me and more and quite likely for everyone she meets. I think of all the Walkathons where Marian would collect all the pledges. I think of the two Garage Sales we held in the early days where she did the same amidst the fun of balloons and barbeque. I think of and admire her stoic attitude that has allowed her to bear so many hurts and issues associated with grief without ever complaining publicly.

Marian is someone whose presence we take for granted: she has always been there for us. She is the ultimate volunteer, one who in giving has discovered and become more deeply embedded in her own goodness. I hope we have given back to her in equal proportion the gifts that she has given to us.

FROM THE DESK OF YOUR EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Dear Friends:

After two long years, Bereaved Families of Ontario-Durham Region has a full fall schedule up and running.

This week we have two mom's groups starting as well as a dad's group. We have enough children registered to start another Children's group which traditionally commences after Thanksgiving.

On behalf of BFO-D we would like to extend our condolences to the Davidson Family in the loss of their mom Donna Davidson. Many of you will remember Donna, as for many years she came to our Walk to Remember to lead us in a fun exercise time as we started our Walk.

Many events are being planned by our dedicated volunteers this fall. We are always looking for more volunteers, so please if you have some spare time we would love you to join our committees. Our Euchre tournament for October 1st is almost full but we are planning more of those nights to come. Our annual dance on October 15th will be a night to remember as we welcome VOODOO Pawn Shop as our first-time live band providing great dancing music for the evening. Tickets are on sale at the office for $25.00. Our annual Angels' Tree of Lights will be on Thursday November 24th @ 7.30pm, and we have just received our permit for a NEW VENUE: - Monsignor Paul Dwyer Catholic High School, 700 Stevenson Rd N, Oshawa, ON L1J 5P5. We will close this year's events with our annual Santa Brunch on Sunday December 11th from 10:00 to 12:30. Tickets remain at the same price as last time. Details for each event will be on our website, Facebook and found within this newsletter.

As you probably already know, Marian Rehr who was one of our admired founders of BFO-D and long-time dedicated Board Member and Treasurer has retired. I will personally miss her as Marian has become a true friend and always someone we could all count on. Marian I wish you a long and healthy retirement.

We welcome Vanessa Longhurst who has now taken over the duties of our Bookkeeper as well as a very dedicated facilitator and volunteer at BFO-D. We also welcome Anna Quattrocchi who has become our new Treasurer. Anna is a dedicated and an enthusiastic Board member who brings a lot of expertise to the Board. Vanessa and Anna will both be a great addition to Our Team!

In closing I would like to thank all of our members and dedicated volunteers for the great work they do on a regular basis. Many have stepped up to create their own fundraisers and we truly appreciate that.

Stay well and stay safe

Yours truly

Jane Carter

Good afternoon everyone.

We are extending a heartfelt thank you to everyone who visited our yard sale in August. As you may know, we held the yard sale as a fundraiser for Bereaved Families of Ontario (BFO) in memory of our son Sean who passed away suddenly in 2020. BFO Durham helped us through our darkest moments and continues to offer support. Holding the yard sale was just a small way to say thank you in Sean's name.

The outpouring of donations for our sale was beyond what we ever imagined. People started dropping off items weeks prior to the sale and donations kept coming in right up to and including the morning of the sale. Support from our daughter, friends and neighbours enabled us to hold the sale because my wife and I just would not have been able to do it alone. We even had a gentleman who offered his time and pick-up truck to help us with the cleanup and a kind woman who was just out for a morning walk who returned with items to sell and a cash donation. Unbelievable random acts of kindness did not go unnoticed and was certainly appreciated.

It is with great pleasure to share with you $1,335.65 was delivered to BFO Durham in August. Again, thank you to everyone who helped make our day so special and success.

Kelly and John Edmonds

BFO DURHAM FAMILY PICNIC

Nestled between a field of golden corn & a forested ravine is the home of Lindsay Barakett & Andrew VanDorsselaer & this was the location for the 2022 BFO Durham Family Picnic.

A chance conversation between bereaved parents at a recent Facilitator Training session led to the revival of this BFO Durham event. A committee was hastily formed & planning went into high gear.

The BFO-Durham Family Picnic is a lovely opportunity for our members to get together to share stories & enjoy the last of the warm summer weather. There were lots of fun activities for the children; a bouncy castle, photo booth, nail art, face-painting & temporary tattoos. Jodi and Dave Gorham were making buttons for all who brought along photographs. We had a snack station providing delicious fresh popcorn, cotton candy & freezies to beat the heat.

Some special visitors dropped in during the afternoon; Disney Princesses, Cinderella & Anna & our favourite Superheroes, Spiderman & Superman!

Live music was provided by Jonathan Onley & Shawn Bernard.

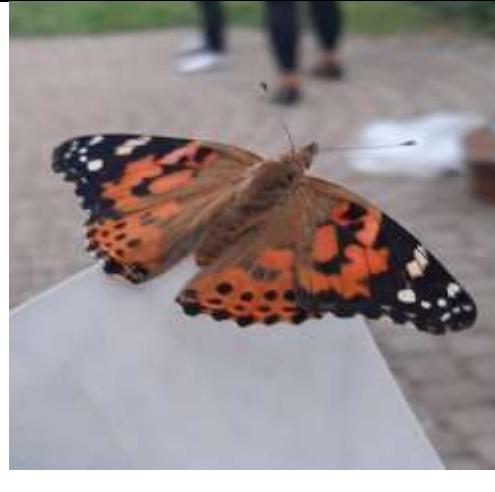

The highlight of the afternoon was a butterfly release at 4.00 p.m. Gary Goswell recited a short poem by Jill Haley after which over 70 Painted Lady butterflies were released by our members. It was a truly beautiful moment.

The afternoon concluded with a delicious barbecue comprising burgers, hot dogs, salads & drinks.

Many thanks to Lindsay Barakett & Andrew Van Dorsselaer for allowing us to use their beautiful home & grounds for the picnic. A big thank-you to the Picnic Committee, Lindsay Barakett, Anna Quattrocchi, Jane Carter & Gary & Caroline Goswell. Thanks to Andrew & Lindsay's brothers Ryan & Terry for being our Barbecue Bosses! Also thanks to Jonathan Onley & Shawn Bernard for entertaining us with your musical talents. We have to thank Ashley Harnett & April Barakett for stepping in last minute to man our Face-painting booth & also to Lexi Margues for her talents in the Nail Art booth. We also have to thank our small army of High School volunteers for helping out in all areas to make sure everything ran smoothly.

We hope that all who attended the return of the BFO Durham Family Picnic enjoyed it & we hope to be able to do it again next year!
