On Thursday November 23rd BFO-Durham held its annual Angels' Tree of Light ceremony. A large crowd was in attendance. We updated our tree to a larger 12' model so our Angels have more room to spread their wings and we also changed the colour theme to "BFO" blue. Our new tree looked so beautiful with its white lights and over 600 ceramic angels. Each angel bore the name of a loved one sadly missed by their families and friends at the holiday season.

Jennifer Carter, on behalf of her mother, Jane Carter (BFO-Durham Executive Director) gave us a warm welcome speech and hosted the ceremony. With Jane by her side, recovering from a cold, Jennifer explained her mother was here with us working hard but her voice had already gone on vacation.

Opening remarks were given by Rev. Maureen McLellan. Her gentle words gave advice, encouragement and support to the audience, along with her own story of grieving. The dedication was given by Andrea Onley, with husband Jonathan and baby son, by her side. Andrea spoke of her own family's holiday experience after the loss of their daughter Sarah. Then, on behalf of all present, she dedicated each angel on the tree in memory of all our loved ones. Rocco Granato and Kelly Fitzpatrick had the honour of lighting our tree this year, in memory of their daughter, Racquel. As the lights in the auditorium dimmed, only the tree shone in the darkness. We had a moment of silence for our own thoughts. As the lights gently came back on, we were treated to a beautiful rendition of Michael Jackson's "You Are Not Alone", performed by Kalista Wilson. This was followed by a special song, written and performed by Jonathan Onley, for his daughter Sarah, called "Won't Forget Your Face". During the song, Jonathan invited us all to say the name of our loved one. It was a very moving moment. Both singers received much deserved loud applause from the audience. Finally, the ceremony concluded with Linda Watson and Karen Beckett leading us all in a responsive reading.

After the ceremony, there was an opportunity to mingle and share stories over light refreshments.

This special evening could not have taken place without the hard work of the following Angel Tree Committee members: Caroline Goswell (chair), Debbie Brown, Beth Bryan, Bev Campbell, Jane Carter, Marlene Charewicz, Anita Fellows, Denise Love, Nancy Raby, Sharon Sears, Joyce Smith, Linda Watson and Magda Zoelman. Also a big thank you to all our young volunteers who helped with the set up the night before and all their hard work during and after the ceremony. Many thanks to Marian Rehr who hand painted and decorated the angels. Thanks also to Joyce and Paul Smith, and the Dutkiewicz family who gave donations for the refreshments, to Susan and Vince Hendricks for their donation for the printing costs of the programme. Thank you to John McManus for the soothing guitar music prior to the ceremony and also to Tara Rekker-Griesbrecht for providing the beautiful poinsettias.

Finally, thanks to the following sponsors who contributed to the success of this event:

Minute Man Press (Whitby)
M&M Meat Shops (Joyce and Paul Smith, and Michelle Taylor)
Tim Horton's (Baldwin/Taunton, Whitby)
Durham District School Board

This annual ceremony is very special to all of us at BFO-Durham. We hope it provided comfort and support to all who attended.

~ Caroline Goswell, Angel Tree Committee Chair.

A MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

October 2018 will be a milestone for BFO-Durham. In that month BFO-Durham will mark 25 years of supporting bereaved members of the Durham community. This is a wonderful achievement by so many of our members and their families.

Wouldn't it be great to say BFO is no longer needed; no parents are facing the loss of a child? How do we celebrate, that over the last 25 years, parents have had to turn to us because they did lose their child?

Sadly the reality is our organisation is needed and our support is valued by those who turn to us for help. What is important to celebrate is all the hard work and dedication of our volunteers, which has kept our doors open for those who need us. All the hours spent over the last 25 years providing what was needed for BFO-Durham to continue its support work for the community. All the efforts made in fundraising and the generosity of our members so that we can meet our costs and have all our services offered for free. To celebrate also how, from the humble beginnings of a phone line in the home of one of our founders, we have come to what we have today. To celebrate the increase in services provided and having them delivered more timely.

My fellow members, BFO-Durham reaching 25 years of operation is something we all need to be proud of. I am sure you will agree with me how grateful we are that BFO-D was there when we needed it

To mark this achievement BFO-D will be holding two events in October. There will be a Gala Dinner/Dance at the Tosca banquet halls in Whitby. Further details regarding date and ticket prices are to follow. We also plan to hold an Afternoon Tea Open House, final details of this also to follow. Suffice it to say the significance of October 2018 will not go unnoticed.

This is also a time to consider how we will move on to face the challenges of the coming years. One exciting plan the board is considering in the coming months is finding new premises. It is becoming more apparent that we need a larger space to meet our needs; something that has its own washroom and kitchen facilities, that is either ground floor or with an elevator in the building. This will increase our operating costs but is something that is so important for the future of our organisation.

Watch out for all the upcoming news and announcements, a very exciting year for BFO-Durham.

~ Gary Goswell, Chair

REFLECTIONS FROM YOUR EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Dear Friends

As a new year dawns, many of us see it as a good time to reflect upon the one we had; one where our volunteers at BFO-D continued to support one another. We are fortunate to have had such wonderful, compassionate volunteers, as well as a Board of Directors who are extremely supportive.

We are currently arranging a number of support groups for moms, dads and infant loss parents. Our moms' group begins January 30 and our dads' group February 8th. The infant loss group is still being organized. If you would like to participate in any of these groups, please call me at the office.

At this time, we are busy arranging our 2018 Walk to Remember, scheduled for Sunday March 4th and featuring a new location in the Whitby Mall at Thickson Road and Dundas St. If you are able to help out with planning or can donate a prize for this event, it would be greatly appreciated.

Also for 2018, Bereaved Families of Ontario-Durham Region celebrates its 25th Anniversary here in the Durham Region. We will be holding a Gala at Tosca in Whitby on Saturday, October 13th, so please save the date. Further details will follow.

In closing I would like to wish everyone a healthy and peaceful 2018.

~ Jane Carter

"YOU ARE NOT FORGOTTEN"

You are not forgotten,
loved one Nor will you ever be,
As long as life and memory last
We will remember thee,
We miss you now, our hearts are sore
As time goes by we'll miss you more.
*Your loving smile,
your gentle face,*
No one can fill your vacant place.

Grief and Growing

suddenly everything
the same was different as if the edges were frayed and losing color ~ dissolving it was quiet, a heavy unbearable silence

this is the road we must all travel in our own time and our own space
others may walk beside us their invisible arms ready to catch our fall

amazingly we emerge with new holes that never fill yet through these raw spaces
the light will slowly return and we grow once again a rare resistant bloom

Cindy Smith

It is now the New Year 2018. There has been so much focus on preparing for the holidays. BFO –Durham had our wonderful “Angels Tree of Lights” Ceremony and a special drop-in evening to help our members with “getting through the holidays”. We don’t really give much attention to facing a new year as bereaved parents.

I remember our first Christmas without our daughter Kelly. I remember how difficult that was and how we did all we could to prepare for it and survive it as best we could. I never gave a thought to New Year’s Eve. It wasn’t until the stroke of midnight that December 31st that it suddenly occurred to me this would be the first year our daughter never lived in. I never expected it to affect me so strongly. It seemed to exaggerate that she was gone, left behind in the previous year, never to have any part of this new year. Like all the hurdles in life that we have to face without our children, the New Year Celebrations became easier. In fact we now always host friends to help us welcome in the new year. However, I have fallen into a habit of not wishing many people a happy new year. Mostly it is in response to their good wishes to me. Nowadays my Facebook friends post lots of new year messages. Not something I have been able to do, not yet anyways.

Many of you, like me, will also be facing the reality of yet another year without your child. Some of you will be entering the first year without them. However your thoughts and feelings at this time, I wish you the best 2018 that you can manage, hoping it is filled with all the love and support you may need.

~ Gary Goswell, Chairman of the Board

2017 BFO-D BRUNCH WITH SANTA

Another Holiday season began with a fabulous event full of family, fun and celebration! On Sunday, December 3rd the Brunch with Santa was held at Harmony Creek Community Centre in Oshawa. Over one hundred families were treated to a delicious pancake brunch, games, crafts, face painting, a jumpy castle and special guests Anna (from Frozen), and Batman. When Santa arrived he made time to speak to each child, and even had a small pre-Christmas gift for each of them. HO HO HO!

Musical guests “Girl Pow-R” performed some holiday favourites as well as an original song “Krisi”. What a treat! A massive thank you goes out to everyone who helped out with the planning of this event, and to all of Santa’s Elves who made the event a success. Happy New Year from the BFO Brunch with Santa committee and we wish you all the best in 2018.
