2015 "THE ANGEL TREE OF LIGHT"

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

On November 26, 2015 BFO-Durham held their 20th anniversary annual memorial service "The Angels' Tree of Light" at the Durham District School Board premises. As in past years, hundreds of people attended the service in memory of their loved one.

The tree was a moving sight, decorated with hundreds of angels with silver ribbons attached. Every angel represented a deceased child, relative or friend.

Sharon Sears welcomed everyone and Randy Gill was very sensitive in his opening remarks.

Marian Rehr touched on every one's grief in her dedication and assured people they could still celebrate the holidays, although some changes may be necessary.

The tree was lit by young Wesley, Braelyn and their mother Lisa Fogg. After a moment of silence, special songs were performed by Lauren Sears and Sabrina Moreino.

The memorial portion of the service was closed with a Responsive Reading, given by Anita Fellows and her friend, Margaret.

After the service, tables were set with trays of refreshments and many people took advantage of the opportunity to socialize with friends and other bereaved families they have met through our organization.

Like other years, this memorial service was a moving experience, well attended and is very much appreciated by everyone.

IT'S KIND OF FUN TO DO THE IMPOSSIBLE" ~WALT DISNEY

I would like to take this opportunity, on behalf of your Board of Directors, to thank every one who contributed to another very successful 2015 fundraising year. The funds raised from The Walk to Remember, The Run to Remember, The Ride to Remember and the Angel Tree of Lights make it possible for us to continue with our programs and drop-ins. Thank you to all our volunteers, members, families, friends and sponsors, without whom these fundraising ventures would not happen.

A MESSAGE FROM YOUR EDITOR

Budding flowers, sprouting trees
Chirping birds and buzzing bees

Daffodils blossom, grass starts to grow,
Little hints of Springtime are beginning to show!

Winter is almost over, Spring is just around the corner and soon the warm weather will bring new growth. Children will be outside running around without a care in the world. Easter is a fun time for children, but can also be hard on bereaved parents. Take time for yourselves and if you feel overwhelmed, remember that at Bereaved Families—Durham, we are here for you. The volunteers who so selflessly give of themselves have been through and are still experiencing what you are.

"The wisest, most loving and well rounded people you have ever met are likely those who have known misery, known defeat, known the heartbreak of losing something or someone they loved, and have found their way out of the depths of their own despair. These people have experienced many ups and downs, and have gained an appreciation, a sensitivity, and an understanding of life that fills them with compassion, understanding and a deep loving wisdom. People like this aren't born; they develop slowly over the course of time." ~ Marc Chernoff

Remember, if you need someone to talk to, there are several drop-ins available to you or call our office.

REFLECTIONS FROM YOUR EXECUTIVE DIRECTORS—OUTGOING AND INCOMING

As I sit and write this piece for our newsletter, my heart is full of so many emotions. BFO-D has been a huge part of my life since I lost my son Andrew and my daughter Rebecca. Over the last year, my family life has gone through many changes, and I have been so grateful to my BFO-D family for all of their constant support.

This time last year I lost my big brother David, whom I miss so very much, but exactly one week later, my daughter gave birth to our very first grandchild, Emily Rose. My second granddaughter Olivia Shannon was born in June and February 9th, my first grandson was born. As my family continues to grow and my daughters and my grandchildren need me more, it is with a very heavy heart that I have decided to step down as Executive Director.

It has been a privilege to serve as the Executive Director of BFO-Durham for the past few years. I will cherish all the days that I spent connecting with you, the members and all the wonderful volunteers, sharing your stories and being a part of the special ways you have chosen to commemorate your children. Although I am stepping down as Executive Director, I will still remain an active part of BFO-Durham. You have all become a second family to me and I look forward to continuing to be part of this amazing organization. Life may change but memories last forever. I hope to see everyone at our 'Walk to Remember' on March 6th.

Holding you in my heart always,

Sharon

Dear Friends

I am truly honoured to have been accepted as the new Executive Director of Bereaved Families, Durham Region. I have long admired the hard work and dedication that my dear friend and predecessor, Sharon Sears, has demonstrated in this position. I will strive to carry on her excellent work to the best of my capabilities.

Here is a brief glimpse of my background within our organization. I first came to Bereaved Families-D following the death of my daughter Julie, in the fall of 2000. It was Sharon Sears and our dear mutual friend, Nancy Raby, who introduced me to BFO-D. My family and I soon thereafter attended the Angel Tree of Lights. From those earliest days forward, I have always felt proud to be part of such a wonderful community of caring people.

In the years that followed, I became a trained facilitator with BFO-D and have conducted several infant loss and children loss groups. Additionally, I was proud to have facilitated sibling loss drop-ins and to have chaired the Angel Tree of Lights Committee for over ten years. For the past five years, it has also been my honour to be on the Board of Directors.

I look forward to continuing my work with those families who need our love and support and to my affiliation with our many volunteers without whose dedication our successes would not be possible.

Hope to see you at the annual walk-a-thon Sunday, March 6!!!

Yours very truly

Jane Carter

Dear Members

This note is to inform you of an important change at BFO-Durham Region beginning Monday, February 8th.

I regret to inform you that Sharon Sears has resigned her position of Executive Director with BFO-D. We are all extremely grateful for the wonderful job Sharon has done for our organization. Like the Board, I know you all hold her in high regard and will miss her loving, caring, genuine personality. Due to personal commitments, she no longer has the time available to continue as ED. This is not a goodbye however; Sharon will continue to be involved as a volunteer. We welcome her to the Board of Directors and of course, she will be seen at many of our events.

The welcome news is that Jane Carter has accepted the position of Executive Director with BFO-D. Many of you will know Jane already as one of our most experienced facilitators in the Infant Loss and Child Loss Programs. She is a long-term volunteer with the organization in many capacities. Jane has lots of love, compassion, experience and commitment to bring to BFO-D. The organization is lucky to have such a great candidate to continue the work of BFO-D.

Change can be a very unwelcome phenomenon, especially when all seems to be going so well. In this case, we believe the change will be as seamless as possible. We know you join us in wishing Sharon all the best and supporting Jane in her new role.

Sincerely

Gary Goswell, Chair
Board of Directors

WELCOME TO OUR CO-OP STUDENT

My name is Kathleen Varga.

I am a student at Durham College in my final year of the Public Relations program. For this program I was required to find a non-profit placement in an agency of my choice. I immediately thought of the place which had helped my family so many years ago, the Bereaved Families of Ontario.

Before I was born, my great grandmother suffered through infant loss shortly after giving birth and relied heavily on the support of the Bereaved Families of Ontario - Toronto. My grandmother was so grief stricken that she never felt she could fill the aching hole in her heart. But thanks to this organization, my grandmother gathered the courage to finally adopt a child, who is my mother. If it wasn't for this organization, I may not have even made it into this world.

To me, this story is an example of all the good this organization does and all the support they have provided over the years. So many people have difficult life journeys and I felt that I should do my part and help make a difference in some people's lives like this organization did for my family. I am so grateful for this opportunity and I am so incredibly thankful to work with Sharon Sears and Jane Carter on an event as heart warming as the "Walk to Remember" 2016.

~ Kathleen

2016 MOTHER'S RETREAT

The BFO Mothers' Retreat

"Mindfulness is the aware, balanced acceptance of the present experience. It is opening to or receiving the present moment, pleasant or unpleasant, just as it is, without either clinging to it or rejecting it." - Sylvia Boorstein

Remembering the past and imagining a future without our children makes the present experience of grief a searingly painful experience. And yet it is only by entering the pain of the present moment that we are transformed and learn to live again.

Running from Friday evening at 7 pm until just after lunch on Sunday, the retreat is designed to deepen our awareness of how the loss of our children has impacted our lives as women and mothers. This weekend of prayer, candle lighting in memory of our children, meditation, workshops and group discussion sessions focuses on our personal, psychological and spiritual growth. We each bring our own unique experience to the weekend to make it one of special sharing and enrichment.

The Bereaved Mothers' Retreat weekend is part of BFO's aftercare programming for those who have already completed a support group. Enhanced by the peace and quiet of the Villa St. Joseph and its welcoming Sisters, this is a weekend where all may enter the quiet and holy space within and reconnect with the Seed of Life that rests in all of Creation.

Registration is limited. Previous attendance within a group bereavement session is essential for you to benefit from the retreat experience as it is an intensive yet fulfilling and 'fun' weekend. Participants must have passed a three year anniversary. Priority is given to those who meet these criteria and have never attended the retreat before. Your cheques will be returned to you if we are not able to include you in this year's program.

What do I bring with me?

- Bring comfortable shoes or slippers, casual clothing, personal toilet articles, soap, etc.
- Bedding and towels are provided.
- A framed photo of your child to be displayed during our prayer services
- A journal and pen if you are a note-taker
- A contribution to our communal snack table for the Saturday Evening Gathering in the Lounge

The Retreat Centre is a smoke-free environment. Also, please avoid perfumes.

MEMORIES

My Child Did Exist

I've lost a child, I hear myself say,
And the person I'm talking to just turns away.
Now why did I tell them, I don't understand.
It wasn't for sympathy or to get a helping hand.
I just want them to know I've lost something dear.
I want them to know my child was here.
My child left something behind which no one can see.
My child made just one person into a family.
So, if I've upset you, I'm sorry as can be.
You'll have to forgive me, I could not resist.
I just want you to know that my child did exist.
