

BEREAVED FAMILIES OF ONTARIO DURHAM REGION NEWSLETTER

“BEREAVED, HELPING THE BEREAVED LEARN TO LIVE WITH GRIEF”

ISSUE #2 - MAY 2024

FROM THE DESK OF YOUR EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Dear Friends:

I hope this newsletter finds you all well. We have had a busy start to 2024 with 3 Mom’s groups and one Dad’s group as well as the Children’s group about to start in the next few weeks. The registration for the Children’s group is at a record high for this session. Thank you to all the facilitators who have volunteered for these sessions.

We are more than half way through our 5-week facilitator program and will soon have 10 new facilitators to welcome shortly.

Many of our volunteers have been busy organizing fundraisers for 2024. Our next euchre night is Saturday June 8th at 7:30. The Golf Tournament is back this year by popular demand and more information will be found in this newsletter. Also, our dance plans are well under way and that flyer is also found in this newsletter. This year we have had to limit the amount of tickets sold for the dance, as last year we found it too crowded. With this in mind, please purchase your tickets early.

Thank you to all the volunteers that made our Walk to Remember 2024 so successful.

We are always looking for new volunteers to help out with these committees. Please contact the office if you have any questions.

In closing I would like to thank our Board of Directors for all their hard work in making BFO-D run so smoothly.

Stay well and stay safe.
Jane Carter

2024 ANNUAL WALK TO REMEMBER

On Sunday, March 3rd a large crowd gathered at the Whitby Mall to start our annual Walk to Remember 2024. Registration began at 9:15 am and after an energizing warm up by our Durham student Nadeen Manasra, the walk began at 10am. We were joined by Spiderman, Cinderella and Anna. Thank you to Jonathan Onley who provided our walkers with music as they walked around the mall. Jonathan does this in memory of his children Sarah and Asa.

I am pleased to report that we again had another successful walk and this would not be possible without the help of our generous community, donors, sponsors, walkers and our BFO-D volunteers. We raised just over $22,000.00 this year. There were several members who set up FACEBOOK fundraisers for this event who helped make this possible.

The Walk banners this year were donated in memory of Christine Boissoin and Jodi Dicks, wife and daughter of Randy and by Jacqueline Dicks in memory of her mom and sister. The second banner was donated in memory of Bradley Wiseman, son of Lynda and brother of Amanda and Lauren.

Thank you to our top 3 pledge earners. They were Suzanne and Chris Garvey for first prize, Bev Campbell took second prize and Bobby Parkinson took third prize.

A very special thank you to our dedicated Walk to Remember Committee, Bev Campbell, Adele Davidson, Caroline Gowell, Anita Fellows, Vanessa Longhurst, Karin New, Cora Silininkas, Kaela Campbell, Dawn Chabossol and Jane Carter as well as many others who helped behind the scenes.

THANK YOU AND GOODBYE

I would like to start off by Thanking Jane and the rest of the team I had the pleasure of meeting at Bereaved Families. Everyone was extremely welcoming and made me feel like I belonged. They all care so much about what they do, and it is very apparent the second you step foot in this building. I got the chance to work together with them on their annual Walk to Remember Campaign. Leading up to the campaign I could see how much everyone cared about making sure everything is done right, and that they have all the resources for a successful fundraiser. There were moments of stress and exhaustion but all of it was worth it the second you see smiles on the faces around you. It felt so rewarding seeing how well the turnout was for this year's campaign, and what made it better was knowing I helped make it happen. Thank you, Bereaved Families, for allowing me to be a part of your exceptional team and giving me the opportunity to do good within our community.

GRIEF UPROOTED

With Christine Dernederlanden

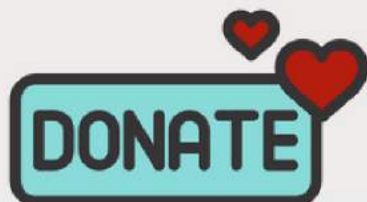

EPISODE 19 - FEATURING JENN CARTER

The Grief Uprooted podcast is thrilled to have Jenn Carter as this week's guest! Jenn's poignant journey through grief, which was featured in the 2020 Universal Film release "All My Life," is an inspiration to many. Recently, she penned a book capturing her family's experience following the loss of her sister. In her book, "My Sister Marie," Jenn shares touching moments from their time at The Hospital for Sick Kids, like her sister's ingenious use of her toes to play video games.

In honor of all siblings and their enduring memories, proceeds from the book's sales go to the Bereaved Families of Ontario Durham Region. Your support can make a tangible difference; for every twenty dollars contributed, a grieving child will receive a copy of "My Sister Marie." Healing is a collective journey, and every gesture counts.

Christine, the host of Grief Uprooted, is generously donating the first few books to young children. To join in supporting grieving children and families, simply visit canadahelps.org, linked below. For every twenty dollar donation you're aiding in the healing of childhood grief. Please note in the message box when donating, "Support a grieving child, My Sister Marie"

Unearth the transformative power of navigating grief in this soulful podcast journey.

Join Christine as she explores the depths of loss, resilience, and the profound healing that comes with embracing our emotions.

Check out this moving interview with Jenn Carter as she shares about her grief journey and talks about her new children's book about sibling loss. All proceeds of Jenn's book go back to BFO Durham Region to support the ongoing work for those who need it most. Jenn's book is available at the BFO Durham Region office.

Family Support Nights are Returning to BFO Durham!

Some of our long-term members may remember our Family Support Nights or Care & Share Nights. These events were open to our members & their families & friends & were designed to provide education & support on a range of subjects connected to grief.

We now have the space available to offer this support program in-house & the first in the new series of Family Support Nights will be “Step-Relationships” (i.e. Step-Mom, Step-Dad etc.) on Thursday June 20th from 7.00 p.m. to 9.00 p.m. at the office. Refreshments will be available. We look forward to seeing you at this event for discussions on the issues of step-relationships & grief.

The Family Support Night program will resume again in the Fall.

If you have any suggestions for topics you would like to be presented at a Family Support Night, please contact Jane Carter, at the office.

Program Co-ordinators, Jane Carter & Caroline Goswell

New support group for long term grief

It was suggested by several members that BFO Durham offer a closed support group for long term grief.

Our grief for the loss of our child does not have a time limit however many things can change as the years go by. Do we still get the support from family and friends? Do people still remember? Are there problems at work? How have we changed as the years passed? What new traditions or memorials have we created to honour of our child? These are just some of the possible topics that could be discussed and shared in a long-term grief support group.

BFO Durham will be offering a 6-week closed group to provide support and address the issues surrounding long term grief.

The first group will begin this coming September. It will be a mixed group of moms and dads who are 5yrs or more beyond their loss and have previously attended an initial support group.

If this first group is successful, and there is a demand from members, then this support will continue to be offered as needed. We will also learn from this group, and make any changes needed to improve it if necessary

If you would like to join this long-term grief group, please contact the office to register.
